

Welcome to Hickory, North Carolina. A city of revival and resurgence. A city with a history and future of craftsmanship. Hickory is home to a huge culinary and outdoor renaissance while continuing in traditions that strengthen the core and roots of our community. Don't just take our word for it...

Hickory Mural Trail: follow along to find all the best selfie spots with murals in the Hickory Metro Area!

Hickory Furniture Mart is your one stop shop to craft your home's perfect style. Featuring four floors & over 1 Million Square Feet of retail space. Open to the public year round, you will find over 1000 manufacturers & 100+ store fronts within this expansive Furniture Destination.

Mas Amor Cantina is a Tex-Mex restaurant focusing on crafting amazing dishes and cocktails with solid NC roots that will keep you craving more!

Hart Square Village is known as the world's largest collection of historically accurate 1800's log cabin structures. See the village come to life at the Annual Hart Square Festival every fourth Saturday in October.

Foothills Folk Art Festival: Artisans from all over the southeast come to share their craft at the Foothills Folk Art Festival each year in Newton, NC.

Crafting Hickory: The Riverwalk and Citywalk projects are just a couple of ways that Hickory is enhancing our city with more walkable ways to explore. The City Walk which is nearing completion will allow access from our Downtown Hickory area to Lake Hickory. Renovations are now complete on Union Square, and construction has begun on the Riverwalk. Once completed the entire project will boast over 10 miles of connected trails throughout our city and along Lake Hickory.

Outdoor Adventures: Just to name a few, the Hickory Metro has tons of outdoor adventures for you to try like kayaking at River Bend Park, mountain biking at Geitner Park, hiking up Bakers Mountain, or enjoying time on Lake Hickory! We have something for all the outdoor enthusiasts.

The SALT Block's main purpose is to promote science, the arts, and literature together. Housed all on one square block, the SALT Block is home to Hickory Museum of Art, Catawba Science Center, Hickory Choral Society, United Arts Council, and the Western Piedmont Symphony. Learning and growth is encouraged for all ages when visiting any of these places on the Salt Block. Relax and let your imagination run wild.
