

Warren County

NORTH CAROLINA

Just an hour north of Raleigh/Durham you will find freshwater lakes, a beautiful rolling countryside and the historic downtowns of Warren County. You can make yourself at home in a historic bed and breakfast or find your peace in a lakeside hammock watching a spectacular sunset. Self-guided architectural tours, local festivals and the annual Haliwa-Saponi Pow Wow breathe life into our preserved history.

Whether you find your treasure in an antique shop or in the sparkle of the sun on the wake of your boat, you'll find a warm welcome and plenty to enjoy.

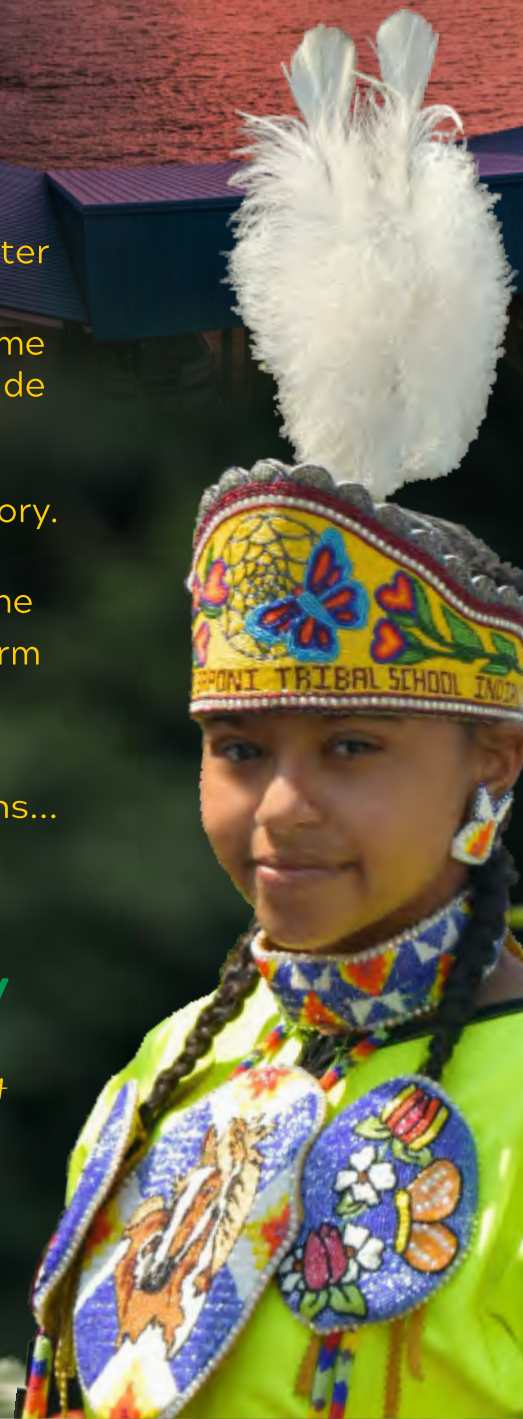

Experience our culture and traditions...
